

Hey Parents!
Here's A Fun,
Interactive
Camp Especially for Kids!

Camp Millionaire uses an innovative day camp format to provide rising 7th and 8th graders with the financial decision-making tools they need to create financial independence. Through fun-filled games, activities, group exercises and a field trip to a credit union, kids learn how to be responsible for their own financial futures.

Come learn how to be smart with your money!

Enrollment on a first come, first serve basis. All pre-registrations must be postmarked by May 15th. A registration packet will be sent electronically to the email you provide below. In order to participate in Camp Millionaire your child MUST mail their registration forms back by May 30th. No exceptions. Lunches and an am/pm snack will be provided each day. Please note on your registration form if there is a special dietary request or medical situation. Appropriate dress required (closed toe shoes or sneakers).

All students will receive a Camp Millionaire workbook, t-shirt and name badge. Books will be collected at the end of each day. Students will take their book and all camp materials home on Friday.
